POPULATION OF THE DISTRICT.

It Has Increased Nearly Twenty-One Per Cent, Since Last Census,

WASHINGTON, July 14.—The Census Office issued its first bulletin to-day, giving the population of the District of Columbia at 278.718. This is an increase since the last census of 48,325, or 20.98 per cent. last census of 48,226, or 20,98 per cent.
In announcing the result of the canvass of the city of Washington, the Director of the Census desires to state that the policy heretofore adopted of making a preliminary count, based on a hurried computation of the names on the population schedules, will be abandoned. It is the purpose of the officials of the Bureau to give out figures

I make all plans fall, it is confidently expected that the official count of the population of the United States will be given to the public on or about the first of December 1999.
